Checking

With benefits not available from most other types of financial institutions, a REFCU checking account is the one you'll want to use to manage your family's finances. You may save hundreds of dollars each year.

REFCU appreciates the checking business of our members and, unlike other financial institutions, we don't charge exorbitant fees to access or manage your money:

- NO Minimum Balance
- NO Monthly Service Fee
- NO Per-Check Charge
- Overdraft Protection

Like an ATM card but better, the Visa® Check Card is the fast, convenient and safe way to pay for things you might normally pay for using cash or a personal check. And, because it acts like an ATM card, you can withdraw cash at thousands of ATMs worldwide that display the Visa logo.

Safer Than Carrying Cash

Rather than using cash, credit-cards or personal checks to pay for purchases, using REFCU Visa® Check Card allows you to complete these transactions accessing money in your REFCU checking account.

Simply present your REFCU Visa® Check Card for payment and the transaction amount will be deducted from your REFCU checking account. No bills to pay, not interest expense incurred, and all transactions will appear on your month checking account statement just as if you had written a check!

No Transaction Fees

More convenient and quicker than writing a check. Just present your Visa Check Card and the transaction will be completed without the need to present identification. Members who qualify for a REFCU Visa® Check Card may be eligible to receive a $500 credit line with the credit union.

AGREEMENT FOR VISA® CHECK CARD

In this agreement the words "you", "your" mean any holder or authorized user of your Visa® Check Card. The word "we" and "us" mean the financial institution named on the reverse side hereof where you have a checking or savings account. "Checking Account" means your NOW account, share draft account or checking account. "Savings Account" means your share account or regular statement savings account. "EFT Terminal" means an electronic funds transfer terminal; this includes automated teller machines, point of sale terminals, and other EFT devices. "Check Card" means each magnetically encoded Check banking card provided to you by us. "PIN" means the personal identification number selected by you for use with your Check Card. By signing the attached forms or by use of your card, you agree with us as follows:

1. Check Card. Each Check Card issued to you pursuant to this Agreement is our property and may be cancelled or repossessed at any time, with or without cause. You may surrender to us on demand each Check card issued to you. If you permit or authorize other persons to use your Check Card and PIN, you will be liable on or for the resulting transactions. To guard against anyone making a transaction that you have not authorized, you should take all reasonable precautions to prevent any other person from learning your PIN. You cannot use the Check Card for financial transactions until we have validated it.

2. In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Transfers.

Telephone or write us at the telephone number and address shown on the reverse side hereof as soon as you can, if you think your statement of receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer listed on your statement of receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared. (a) Tell us your name and account number (if any). (b) Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information. (c) Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error. If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days. Our business days are listed on the reverse. We will tell you the results of our investigation within 10 business days (this time period will be 20 business days for complaints or questions that relate to payment or purchases at the point-of-sale) to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will re-credit your account within 10 business days (20 business days for complaints or questions that relate to payment of the purchase at the point-of-sale) for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within 10 business days, we may not credit your account.

3. Account Information. We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make (a) Where it is necessary for completing transfers or resolving errors involving transfers; or (b) In order to verify the existence and condition of your account for a third party, such as a credit bureau or a merchant; or (c) If you give us your written permission.

4. Transaction Receipts. You can get a receipt at the time you make any transfer to or from your account using an EFT Terminal.

5. Our Liability For Failure to Make Transfers. If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to the agreement with you. We will be liable for your losses or damages. However, there are some exceptions. We will NOT be liable, for instance; (a) If, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money in your account to make the transfer; (b) If the transfer would go over the credit limit on your overdraft line, if you have one, (c) If the automated teller machine where you are making the transfer does not have enough cash; (d) If the EFT Terminal or processing system was not working properly and you knew about the breakdown when you started the transfer; (e) If circumstances beyond our control (such as fire or flood) prevent the transfer, despite reasonable precautions we have taken; (f) If the funds in your account are subject to legal processes or other encumbrance restricting the transfer; (g) If your PIN or Check Card is reported lost or stolen; or (h) If we are holding uncollected funds in your account and the transfer would require the use of those funds. There may be other exceptions stated in our account agreement with you.

6. Your Liability. Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your Check Card or your PIN has been lost or stolen. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down.
